A Handbook for Raising Small Numbers of Sheep

This is the third edition of our popular publication for managers of small flocks. Included is basic information on breeds, breeding, feeding, diseases, parasites, and general management tips you’ll need to maintain the health of your flock. You’ll also find information on lambing and lamb management as well as chapters on wool and shearing. A glossary, a bibliography for additional reading, and appendices on sheep equipment and general tips on feeding and facilities round out this helpful guide.

Illustrated with 62 black and white photographs and 30 line drawings and tables. 73 pages.
